

FAVORS APPEAL
TO THE COURTSBallinger's Method of Ending Liquor Controversy.

SANCTIONED BY SECRETARY

Injunction Proceedings Instituted at Bemidji, Minn., Approved by the Head of the Department of the Interior at Washington—Conference to Be Held at St. Paul.

Bemidji, Minn., Dec. 10.—It has become known that Secretary of the Interior Ballinger has been in wire communication with Attorney E. E. Mc-Donald of this city, who represents the liquor dealers here in injunction proceedings, and that Mr. Ballinger was not only aware that such action was not to be taken in Bemidji, but that he has sanctioned and even pledged his department to co-operate in such a movement.

On Dec. 2 Mr. McDonald wired Secretary Ballinger asking if arrangements could not be made for "suspension of the enforcement of the Indian treaties by seizure as to those not guilty of selling liquors to Indians until the questions involved could be determined." In reply Mr. McDonald received by wire the following answer from Secretary Ballinger:

"Answering your telegram—Cannot see my way clear to suspend enforcement of law. It is believed that federal officials are transcending legal authority in their enforcement of Indian intercourse, acts and treaties and if you see fit to institute proceedings for injunction, this department will co-operate in securing judicial determination of the disputed questions."

Attorney McDonald then sent a second message as follows:

"Injunction proceedings being instituted, we need a few days. Have you any suggestions to offer?"

It was a result of the telegram that the conference to be held in St. Paul at the office of United States District Attorney C. P. Houghton was arranged Judge Marshall A. Spooner, who spent several days in St. Paul recently delving into the legal depths of the treaty for clients separate from those of Mr.
McDonald, left for St. Paul to be present at the meeting. Mr. McDonald also left for St. Paul.

Doing a Thriving Business.

The twelve saloons here, protected by the injunction proceedings, are doing a thriving business, the patrons of the other twelve, which are closed, with all supplies at the depot ready for shipment, adding their calls for refreshments to those of the regular patrons. Agent T. E. Brennts, who closed the saloons here, left for St.
Paul and he also will participate in the conference there. With him went H. F. Coggershall, who arrived from New Mexico Friday and who is to succeed Mr. Brennts in charge of the sub-agency here.

The injunctions were issued by Court Commissioner A. M. Crowell of this city and the proceedings are in district court on Dec. 29. If, however, Attorney Houghton wishes the matter brought before the federal courts there will be no objection on the part of Attorney McDonald and probably none on the part of Judge Spooner.

It is a mistake to presume that if the Bemidji attorneys win their contention that the Indian treaty of 1855 is not applicable to this city that it will reopen all the saloons in this territory. As a matter of fact, the strongest point back of the injunctions issued here is that Bemidji and a small adjacent territory is not within the power of the treaty of 1855.
This city was part of a reservation created by an act in 1864 and this, with the Nelson act later, is believed to have modified the 1855 treaty so far as Bemidji is concerned; therefore, even though Bemidji saloons ultimately prove a right to exist, it does not follow that other places will be able to pry off the lid.

With the closing of the saloons Bemidji probably will return to the saloon keepers thousands of dollars paid over in license fees. The refunds will be made, if they are made, upon the basis of $500 a year; thus a saloon keeper who has run six months will get back $250.

The Complaint and the Remedy.
"I'm going to give the neighbors' little boy a drum and a trumpet for Christmas," said Mr. Nicholas.
"What?" exclaimed his wife. "Why, you are always complaining about the noise they make since the daughter began taking music lessons!"
"I know. But perhaps the boy will drown the noise from the piano."

Trouble Over Drainage to Be Settled in Court.

Devils Lake, N. D., Dec. 10.—Another drainage suit, in which farmers against whom assessments for benefits derived by reason of the construction of county drains were made, appear as plaintiffs, was heard in district court. The action involves a drain running from Irvine to Dry lake.

The plaintiffs seek to show that the board was without power in causing the commencement of work and the levying of assessments. In support of this contention it is said the board failed to advertise for bids in the proper manner, and that the names of those against whom assessments would be levied were not published in accordance with law.

SUPREME COURT
TURNS DOWN DEITZHabeas Corpus Proceedings at Madison Fail.

Madison, Wis., Dec. 10.—In denying the habeas corpus petition of John F.
Deitz and quashing the writ, the supreme court indicated plainly that the trial court can use its own discretion about ordering service of any or all warrants outstanding against Deitz, thus cutting off Deitz' hope of liberty.
"The ends of justice may demand that the arrests be not made at once," says the court. The decision followed the argument by Attorney W. B. Rubin for Deitz and a brief reply by Attorney F. B. Lamoreaux for the state.

The decision of the court was unanimous.

ARE GREATLY SURPRISED

Residents of Hayward Astonished at Miss Deitz' Story.

Hayward, Wis., Dec. 10.—Residents here are greatly surprised at the manner in which Almyra Deitz is describing conditions at Sawyer county's jail, where her father is confined. Deitz is the first prisoner who occupied a cell in the jail, which is fully equipped with all modern conveniences, hot and cold water and shower bath. It is well known that Deitz is now sleeping in the best bed he has occupied since going to Cameron dam, the beds at his home there having been bunks.

The fact that Deitz and Leslie each gained ten pounds while in jail speaks pretty well for the food which Almyra considers "wretched." Even Mrs. Deitz, who was released on bail at 3 o'clock on the afternoon of Dec. 5, was reluctant to leave the jail, not going until 6 p. m., showing that her treatment could not be bad. The fears of the Deitz family that their father will be poisoned are absurd, so far as officers and citizens are concerned here. Deitz is receiving the best of treatment, as did all the members of his family and all here are unanimous in wanting him to receive fair trial.

Gain but Three Seats.

London, Dec. 10.—More than two-thirds, or 460, of the members of the new house of commons have now been elected and the political parties stand almost as they were at the dissolution of parliament. The Unionists, who last week expected to gain at least twenty seats, thus far have won but three from the government coalition.

Surrenders to Police.

St. Paul, Dec. 10.—Joe Sauro, charged with the shooting of his wife and Joe Mezaccapa on the upper levee Tuesday night, entered Central police station and surrendered. He said he had not been out of the city, though the police had been unable to locate him in a three days' search. Sauro is charged with attempted murder. He is said to have confessed the shooting.

Sheriff Loses His Job.

St. Paul, Dec. 10.—James McDavitt, sheriff of Dakota county, was ordered removed from office for neglect of duty in not stopping the steer killing contest, which took place at Premo park, West St. Paul, Sept. 18. The removal is effective at once, and the county board will have the election of a successor.

TAFT'S ECONOMY IS REAL THINGSome Congressmen Fear It Is Carried Too Far.

THEY WANT APPROPRIATIONS.

Curious Election in Massachusetts, Where Democrat Wins Short Term and Losses Long Term—Olcott's Courtesy to Democratic Successor.
Congressman Mann Furnishes Seeds.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.
Washington, Dec. 10.—[Special].— Congress is not ready to say that it is pleased over the economy plans of President Taft. "Wasteful extravagance in public expenditures" have been catch words for a long time, but they didn't mean very much. Members of congress clamored for appropriations the same as before.

Until the present time every executive officer sought more money for one purpose or another, and the expenditures mounted higher each year. Now that the president means business and has cut the estimates to the lowest point possible, making his subordinates tell the committees that these estimates are sufficient, doubt is expressed whether the "cheese paring" has not gone too far.

This is especially the case among congressmen who want public buildings and river and harbor appropriations.

Curious Election Figures.

Why voters cast peculiar ballots is something that no one can find out.
In every election there are curious developments, but nothing quite like that which happened in the Fourth Massachusetts district.

The death of Congressman Tirrell caused an election to fill the vacancy, and there was also an election for the long term beginning March 4. W. H.
Wilder was nominated by the Republicans and John J. Mitchell by the Democrats, each for both terms.

Mitchell was elected by less than 100 for the short term, and Wilder was elected by about 100 for the long term. There must have been about 100 voters who thought alike and to the effect that it would be a nice thing to give each of them a chance.

Courtesy to His Successor.

Congressman Olcott of New York is one man who is going to show great consideration to his successor. He has promised to take Thomas G. Patten, a Democrat, about the house and introduce him to all the men of prominence and "start him right."

Such a courtesy is not usually extended by a defeated congressman to his successor, but in the case of Olcott it is different. Olcott was defeated in the primaries by another Republican, and that Republican was snowed under in the election.

"Tom," said Olcott to his successor,
"it would have been my duty to have introduced my successor in the house if he had been a Republican, but in your case it will be my pleasure."

An Amateur Gardener.

In Congressman Mann's room was a very large supply of seeds, sprouts and other articles pertaining to agriculture.
It would not have caused comment in the room of a member from a rural district, but Mann is from the heart of Chicago. He was asked to explain.
"Well," he said, "I am perhaps the largest amateur gardener in the country. In South Chicago I have an extensive place where I grow everything.
Last year I gave away about a quarter of a million of trees, which were sent to different sections of the country."

The seeds and other agricultural exhibits in Mann's room were going in and coming out. The agricultural department was sending seeds to him.
He was sending a supply to the department. It is worthy of record when a congressman sends seeds to the department. Probably Mann is the only congressman who has done anything of the kind.

"Father of Congress."

At the end of the present session Senator Frye of Maine will be the senior senator in point of service and will continue to be, as at present, "father of congress" on account of his continuous service. He has had ten years in the house and thirty years in the senate, making an uninterrupted congressional service of forty years.
Frye went from the house to the senate when Blaine went into the cabinet of President Garfield. For the past sixteen years Frye has been president pro tem. of the senate, presiding over the body when the vice president was absent.

Lawrence Is Particular.

Congressman Lawrence of the First Massachusetts district is very particular about a certain eighty-five votes.
He is from the famous Berkshire county and has for a long time represented the district, his majority growing at each successive election until in 1908 he had over 7,000. This year he was saved from the landslide by 885 votes. "Let me see," remarked a friend; "you only had 800 majority."
"Oh, more than that," Lawrence eagerly replied. "I had 885 majority.
Don't forget that eighty-five when speaking of it, for I feel pretty proud of it. Besides, I can't afford to have my majority cut down. It was close enough to be very uncomfortable."

WIFE ENDEAVORS TO SETTLE

North Dakota Man in Jail for Passing Worthless Checks.

Brandon, Man., Dec. 10.—Mrs. C. E.
Kelley telegraphed from Petersburg, N. D., asking for $650 of the $1,000 which was found on her husband when arrested here a few days ago for obtaining money under false pretences in North Dakota and said that with that amount she could settle everything owing there. The local police, however, will hold the man till they get more information. Kelley was arrested here on information received from Petersburg and is now fighting extradition.

Lakota, N. D., Dec. 10.—C. E. Kelley, under arrest at Brandon, Man., and for whose extradition to the United States the authorities of Nelson county have already taken action by forwarding proper papers to Governor Burke at Bismarck, is alleged to have made a cleanup of about $1,000 in Lakota and Michigan City by the use of worthless checks.

BIG APPROPRIATION
FOR THE NORTHWESTCarried in the Rivers and Harbors Bill.

Washington, Dec. 10.—Just about the time the National Rivers and Harbors congress was adopting a resolution recommending an annual supply bill of $50,000,000 a year, the house committee on rivers and harbors reported a measure involving a little more than $31,000,000 to be expended in the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1911.

The rivers and harbors congress has accomplished results since its organization, notably in inducing the federal congress to adopt a policy making appropriations annually instead of at irregular intervals for the improvement of the waterways of the country. The discussions at the sessions this week showed a continuance of great interest on the subject and leaders in congress made the prediction the time is not far distant when fixed annual appropriations, approximating $50,000,000, will be authorized.

The rivers and harbor bill reported will be called up in the house soon and in all probability passed before adjournment. It makes liberal appropriations for the improvement of the Mississippi, the Missouri, the Ohio and other great rivers of the West.
The sum of $5,500,000 is allotted for the improvements of the Mississippi.
Of this amount expenditures are to be made as follows: Head of passes to mouth of Ohio, $3,000,000; between Ohio and Missouri rivers, $1,000,000; between Missouri river and St. Paul, $1,250,000.

For the continuation of work on the high dam in the Mississippi near St.
Paul the sum of $250,000 is made available. Other items in the bill of interest to the Northwest follow:

For improvement of Agate Bay, Minn., $2,000; Minnesota river, $2,000; Red River of the North, in Minnesota and North Dakota, $7,500; Port Wing Harbor, Wis., $3,000; St. Croix river in Minnesota and Wisconsin, $3,000.

OVER NINETY-ONE MILLIONS

Approximate Population of the United States.

Washington, Dec. 10.—Population statistics of the thirteenth census issued by the census bureau included the following:
Wyoming, 145,965, an increase of 53-434, or 57.7 per cent, over 92,531 in 1900. The increase from 1890 to 1900 was 29,976, or 47.9 per cent.
Alaska 64,356, an increase of 746, or 1.2 per cent, over 63,592 in 1900.
Hawaiian Islands, 191,909, an increase of 37,908, or 24.6 per cent, over 154,001 in 1900. Honolulu has a population of 42,183, an increase of 12,877,
or 32.8 per cent, over 29,306 in 1900.
The population of Superior, Wis., is 40,384, an increase of 9,293, or 29.9 per cent, over 31,091 in 1900.

When announced by the census bureau the total population of the United States will be shown to approximate 91,500,000.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCH

Will Be Conducted Under the Old Regime.

Boston, Dec. 10.—A declaration that the government of the Christian Science church under the board of directors will continue according to the ideas of the late founder and leader, Mrs. Mary Baker G. Eddy, was made public by the five directors following the first meeting of the board since Mrs. Eddy's death.

This statement, which was given out through Alfred Farlow of the publication committee, was signed by Stephen A. Chase, Archibald McLellan, Allison V. Stewart, John V. Dittmore and Adam H. Dickey, who constitute the board of directors.

"The authority given to the board of directors by the church manual remains intact and is fully adequate for the government of the organization in all its affairs. The policy of this board will be the same as when under Mrs. Eddy's active direction," says the statement.

WOULD SOLVE NEW PROBLEMS

Eminent New York Financier Will Devote His Time to Adjusting Differences Between Capital and Labor.
Deeply Interested in Government Supervision Over Corporate Affairs.

New York, Dec. 10.—George W. Perkins announced his retirement from the firm of J. P. Morgan & Co. to devote his time to extending the principles of profit sharing and other benefit plans for solving the conflict between capital and labor. This announcement, given out after the close of business, follows:

"On Jan. 1, I will have been with the firm of J. P. Morgan & Co. ten years and engaged in business activities over thirty years. I am withdrawing to devote more time to corporation work and work of a public nature in which I am deeply interested.

"In continuing my relations with the industrial and other business organizations with which I am connected, I hope to find further opportunity for extending the principles of profit sharing and other benefit plans which, experience has shown, offer a practical solution of some of the difficulties existing between capital and labor.

"At Columbia university two years ago and at Harvard university last spring I spoke of the importance of solving the new problems at present facing the country, and which have followed the organization of the great co-operative combinations of capital, and it is my hope that the experience I have had may enable me to contribute something toward the adjustment of these matters, which seem to me to be of the largest consequence to the country."

Advanced in His Views.

In recent years Mr. Perkins has represented the firm in the great industrial organizations in which it was interested and the formal announcement of the firm indicates that his relations to those concerns will continue. In public addresses he has taken an advanced view of the relations of government to business and is deeply interested in government supervision over corporate affairs.

He was the originator of the profit sharing plan of the United States Steel corporation and International Harvester company and desires to adapt those methods to other organizations.
Before he entered J. P. Morgan & Co. Mr. Perkins was vice president and general manager of the New York Life Insurance company. The formal announcement made by J. P. Morgan & Co. says:

"Announcement is made by Messrs.
J. P. Morgan & Co. that Mr. Edward F. Whitney and Mr. George W. Perkins will retire from the firm on Jan.
1, 1911, and that Mr. William H. Porter, president of the Chemical National bank, and Mr. Thomas W. Lamont, vice president of the First National bank, will become partners in the firm.

"Mr. Whitney withdraws as he desires to retire from business.
"Mr. Perkins withdraws from the firm in order to devote himself to corporate work and matters of a public nature which require more time and attention than it would be possible for him to give while remaining in the firm."

Claims the Count was Wrong.

Towner, N. D., Dec. 10.—That the cavassing board of McHenry county failed to count thirty-six votes that had been cast for him for sheriff is the claim set up by D. A. Kramer in an action brought to secure a recount.
His opponent, J. Sampson, was elected by a majority of only eleven votes, and Kramer now alleges that in several precincts there were irregularities which, if corrected, would give him the sheriffship by a majority of twenty-five votes. The matter will be argued before Judge Burr shortly.

Secretary of War Dickinson in Favor of Them.

DESIRES AN APPROPRIATION

Head of the War Department Wants Congress to Provide Funds for the Purchase of a Reasonable Number of the Better Type of Air Machines for Instruction Purposes and Field Work.

Washington, Dec. 10.—As might have been expected after his personal flights in aeroplanes in France, Secretary Dickinson comes out in his annual report with a strong endorsement of the flying machine and with a recommendation to congress for an appropriation to provide the signal corps with a reasonable number of the better type of machine for instruction purposes and field work.

He recalls the fact that the United States was the first nation officially to recognize the aeroplane for military purposes and conducted at Fort Myer in 1908 the first public flight of a heavier than air machine, yet it has since that date made no addition to its aeronautical equipment, which at present consists of one small dirigible balloon, one Wright aeroplane and three small captive balloons.

The secretary calls attention to the fact that the entrance to Chesapeake bay, one of the most important points strategically on the Atlantic sea coast, is wholly unfortified, not a single gun being mounted to defend the channel between Cape Charles and Cape Henry. At another important point—the eastern entrance to Long Island sound—additional guns are needed.
Except for these instances, so far as guns alone are concerned, the sea coast defenses at all home ports are in a very satisfactory state.

Congress is asked to authorize an expenditure of $19,546,843 for the fortification of the termini of the Panama canal, including the construction of posts for the permanent garrison, and $7,000,000 of this sum should be made available immediately in order to complete the project within three years.
The additional sum of $2,000,000 is also wanted immediately to be applied towards the creation of naval establishments in the canal zone as a necessary part of the defense of the canal.

Less Desertions From Army.

The secretary notes with gratification a reduction by 30.6 per cent in the number of desertions last year compared with the preceding year. Altogether there were 3,464 desertions, or a percentage of 3.66 of the strength of the army, which was less than any fiscal year since 1899. The decrease was most marked in the engineers, field artillery and cavalry.

The death rate in the army last year was the lowest that has ever occurred, the total number being 370, of which 288 were from disease and 142 from injuries, six of the latter being killed by hostile Moros in action or while on sentry duty.

Dealing with the regular army organization, the secretary urges the adoption of a provision of law similar to that governing the navy for the elimination of inefficient officers.

The most serious feature of the present military situation and one that should be corrected immediately is the shortage of field artillery material.
Touching the progress of the work of uncovering the wreck of the Maine in Havana harbor, the secretary states the plans for the construction of a cofferdam of interlocking steel piling around the wreck have been approved and are now under execution.

The secretary says that a comprehensive act providing for the organization of a volunteer army only after congress has made a declaration of war would be of inestimable value if the country ever again is confronted with a foreign war.

The total estimates for military purposes for the next year aggregate $139,674,288, which is $3,257,904 less than the appropriations for the current fiscal year, the decrease being due to the fact that the department is asking for less money for incidental expenses.

The secretary refers to his recent trip to the Philippines, and declares that the result of the first year's application of the new tariff more than justified the prediction that the decrease of customs revenue would not be made, and would be satisfactorily met by an increase of internal revenue. The pressing need in Porto Rico was an improvement in health conditions, and he recommended the establishment of an efficient health department in the islands.

Powers Contests Election.

Langdon, N. D., Dec. 10.—Conditions almost identical with those existing in Grand Forks are revealed in an action brought by Joseph Powers against J.
K. Hamilton, contesting his election to the position of county auditor of Cav-aller county. Powers alleges that the fact that the voters of Langdon were not registered, as provided by law, makes null the votes cast in the city.
If his contention is upheld by the court, he will be elected county auditor. Hamilton, on the count, at present has a majority of thirty-eight votes.

KEEP THE KIDNEYS WELL

Health is Worth Saving, and Some Brainerd People Know How to Save it

Many Brainerd people take their lives in their hands by neglecting the kidneys when they know these organs need help. Sick kidneys are responsible for a vast amount of suffering and ill health, but there is no need to suffer nor to remain in danger when all diseases and aches and pains due to weak kidneys can be quickly and permanently cured by the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. Here is a Brainerd citizen's recommendation.

Mrs. Benjamin Nelson, 701 Third Ave., says: "Our high opinion of Doan's Kidney Pills remains the same as when we publicly endorsed this remedy in 1908. We have procured Doan's Kidney Pills from a local drug store and they have never failed to give relief from lumbago and other annoyances caused by discolored kidneys. We urge trial of Doan's Kidney Pills in all cases of kidney complaint."

BARELY ESCAPE WITH THEIR LIVES

His Entire House Ablaze Early This Morning, Louis Bourassa, Wife and Baby

BREAK THROUGH THE WINDOWS

House at 1401 South 7th St. Valued at $1,000. Destroyed—Insurance on It and Goods $600

Almost suffocated by the dense, rolling smoke and fighting the rush of flames, Louis Bourassa and his wife struggled to save themselves, and their little crying baby from an awful death this morning.

Their cosy home, 1401 South 7th street, recently bought last June from J. M. Hayes, the spring water man, caught fire about two o'clock this morning. An alarm was turned in by a neighbor, Mrs. Clifford A. Russell. The fire department responded quickly but the house was of such inflammable material that not a bit of it or of the furniture was saved, and all was a total loss.

The house, a one story dwelling, with seven rooms, valued at $1,000 was insured in the Smith Bros. agency for $400. The furniture, insured in the same agency, carried $200. Of the furniture two small chairs and two tubs were saved and the baby's pair of diminutive jumpers was grabbed as they fled through the broken windows.

The family spent the balance of the night with Mrs. Jane C. Wagar, 1402 South Broadway and today are staying with relatives.

Come and see Santa Claus in our window tomorrow afternoon, Saturday, Dec. 10th. Mothers bring your children. MODEL VARIETY STORE, 613 Laurel Street, 160-11 Henke & Haase, Props. 158-31.

ALL NIGHT SERVICE

Manager Craig Announces the Western Union Will Put on Additional Service

Manager David R. Craig is glad to announce to the public that an additional operator is soon to be put on the force, thus assuring Brainerd an all night, as well as all day, service. The new operator, the night man, will be on from ten in the evening to eight in the morning, is Henry Jindal, of Duluth.

Manager Craig and Operator R. C. Nylund will handle the day business. Walter Kosbab and an extra boy, when necessary, will deliver the messages.

Brainerd at the time of the Northern Minnesota Development Association meeting, had 15 special correspondents in the city representing Duluth, St. Paul, Minneapolis, Superior and Chicago papers. They were lavish in their praise of the way the local office handled the business. And remember, if you can suit and satisfy a newspaper man you are very nearly perfect in service.

In addition to the heavy newspaper business of those three days was the regular local business and the extra work handling messages of the professional and business men in attendance at the convention. The mayors of Duluth and Superior, were absent two days from their respective bailiwicks and much official business was transacted by wire.

Everybody, it seems, had been handed a bouquet during the recent convention except the telegraph company and its operators. A measure of thanks is due the Western Union Co., to A. D. Bradley, of Minneapolis, its courteous and enterprising superintendent of the eighth district of the western division, and to our local manager, David R. Craig and his assistants, for the excellent service provided.

USES TREATY AS BAR TO PAYMENT

Globe Wine Co., of St. Paul, Sues C. Evensta, of the Rex Hotel, for Liquor Bill

ATTY. LONG'S NOVEL DEFENSE

Evensta May Avoid Payment Because Liquor Was Sold Contrary to Indian Treaty Provisions

Jay Henry Long has sprung a novel defense in a suit for liquor sold a saloon keeper of Brainerd.

J. C. Donahue, doing business as the Globe Wine Co., of St. Paul, sold a bill of wine and liquors amounting to $348.73 between the months of February and November, 1910, to C. J. Evensta, proprietor of the Rex hotel.

M. E. Ryan, the attorney for the wine company, entered suit against Evensta for not paying the liquor bill. In the answer filed today by Jay Henry Long, the attorney for Evensta, it is alleged that the indebtedness was for ardent spirits, wines and other intoxicating liquors sold by the plaintiff to the defendant and for the purpose of being introduced into the city of Brainerd to be sold and used in Evensta's retail liquor store and saloon in such city and in violation of the laws of the United States and especially in violation of a certain treaty made by the United States with certain Indian tribes covering the territory in which Brainerd was and is located and which treaty is of the date of February 22, 1855.

If Jay Henry Long wins this case it opens a long vista of law suits. If a sale to a liquor man is void on the above ground, then a lease made with a liquor man allowing him to use a building for the sale of liquor, makes such a lease, ipso facto, null and void. If this northern country is to be managed by Secretary Ballinger, of the department of the interior and his Indian agents, it will be interesting to see into how many legal complications this Indian territory and its people may become involved in. Common law and code law may well tremble before the edicts of Ballinger and his agents.

"The Climax" Tonight

"A story that plays on the heart-strings" is the description applied to "The Climax" by a noted New York critic, and local playgoers will realize the truth of this line when the charming drama is presented at the Brainerd opera house tonight.

"The Climax" enjoyed a run of almost a year at Weber's theatre in New York. The piece is the work of Edward Locke, an author heretofore unknown to fame, but from whom even more brilliant things are expected. The musical theme, which has a strong bearing on the play, is the work of Joseph Carl Brell.

The story of "The Climax" concerns Adelina von Hagen, daughter of a German musician, and an Italian opera singer, in New York. She, Luigi and his son Pietro, who hopes to become a famous composer, live in a little studio apartment in Gotham's Latin quarter. Pietro thinks himself in love with Adelina, but she loves only the career she is to follow. Dr. Raymond, who has known Adelina since childhood, does not believe the stage a proper vocation for any woman, especially for Adelina, whom he loves. The girl has a little trouble with her vocal chords which a slight operation would cure. The operation is performed by a prominent specialist, who assures Adelina that there is only one chance in a thousand for failure.

Dr. Raymond, ready to do anything to keep the girl from the stage, suggests to her the probability of this one chance. He persists in this suggestion until the day when the vocal cords should have healed. When she is permitted to try to sing, her voice will not come. Finally she agrees to marry the doctor. On the wedding day Adelina discovers that her voice is more beautiful than ever. Dr. Raymond confesses what he has done, offering as an excuse a blind intoxication of love.

It would deprive local theatre patrons of part of their pleasures to tell them the whole story of the play. It will be seen from the above, however, that the theme is one of intense interest.

HOW CAN CITY COLLECT $14,000

Liquor License Revenue Shut off From City—What Will Take Its Place

CITY NOW TAXED TEN MILLS

Money Cannot Be Diverted From Other City Funds, Charter Not Permitting

A new phase of the liquor question and closing order making Brainerd dry, has presented itself to the people of Brainerd. That is the question of refunding to saloon keepers the proportionate share of unused license money. There were 26 saloons in the city, most of whom had their licenses paid up to future dates. The saloon keepers maintain that they are entitled to a rebate and may engage council to enforce their demands.

The annual license fee is $500. They were all closed up by W. E. (Pussy Foot) Johnson on Tuesday, December 6th. So it is easy to figure the amount each liquor dealer may claim as a rebate. Dee Holden was the lucky man for his license expired on December 11, 1910, and was not renewed. Frank Woelfert's license expires on November 16, 1911; William Costello on Nov. 11, Iver Holden Nov. 8, LeVoy & Thienes Oct. 19, Jerry Crowley Sept. 7, Henry Theviot Aug. 6, Andrew Ellingboe Aug. 2, William Fitzharris Aug. 4, P. E. McCabe July 28, Andrew Carlson July 22, John Coates Liquor Co. July 2, Henry Grossman July 2, Wm. T. Larrabee June 6, A. F. Clause May 25, Harry Van Sickle May 4, E. W. Dunne May 7, Edward Lien April 5, C. P. McLean March 29, J. D. Armstrong, April 2, C. J. Evensta, April 2, Geo. Weaver, March 18, John Wise, March 9, Henry Betzold, March 9, Nelson & Knutson, February 19, Geo. West, February 10, all in the year 1911.

Ten per cent of this liquor license money goes to the county of Crow Wing and if the saloon keepers get their refund, then the county will have to make a refund to the city.

Two per cent of this license money went to the state of Minnesota to inaugurate its inebriate asylum, popularly termed the state's "jag farm." The state of Minnesota may have to refund this percentage to Brainerd.

The tax levy for 1911 has been made in Brainerd and is 10 mills, as high as the law allows.

The water and light board has quite a little money but the charter forbids the transfer of electric light collections to the city's general fund.

"What shall be done?" A lawyer from out of town and in attendance at the district court, said laughingly: "Put a license or special tax on all business men and professions." Another said: Re-arrange your assessment rolls and raise the assessment. Appoint a tax commission to ferret out unpaid taxes and those not assessed high enough.

Where will Brainerd get the money?

Notice

Notice is hereby given, that we, heretofore doing business as Liljendahl & Rosko Bros., have this day dissolved partnership. John Liljendahl to continue in the blacksmith, wagon making and repairing business and to collect all unpaid accounts in that department; Rosko Bros. to continue in the automobile garage, sales and repairing business and to collect all accounts in that department.

"Squaw Man" Will Be Welcome

When "The Squaw Man," the virile, satisfying story of life in the west, returns to the Brainerd opera house, Monday, Dec. 19th, the theatre goers of this city will be given another opportunity to see a positive success with the prestige of several long engagements in New York and Chicago. Every criticism has been of the most satisfactory nature, and the general opinion of those who have seen this production, is that it is one of the strongest bits of dramatic construction that has yet been given to the stage.

Mr. J. C. Livingston, well known as one of the most capable leading men in America, is playing the principal part and he invests it with a character and dignity that cannot be surpassed. The play is superbly mounted by H. E. Pierce & Co., and the cast secured to interpret it cannot be surpassed in point of excellence.

J. B. STINEHOUR PASSES AWAY

Formerly of Brainerd, Dies at Staples and Will be Buried Here

J. B. Stinehour, formerly of Brainerd, and very well known here, died yesterday morning at Staples of leakage of the heart. The news was received by C. M. Richardson, a friend of the deceased.

The funeral will take place tomorrow, services being held in the morning at Staples. The body will be shipped to Brainerd, arriving here on the afternoon train. There will be a short service here and the burial will be at Evergreen cemetery, the body reposing in the vault of the cemetery.

The deceased leaves a widow and two children, a boy and a girl. He was formerly a brakeman for the Northern Pacific railway, braking on the west end. When first taken sick he spent several weeks in a Brainerd hospital and was later removed to his home where he passed away. The sympathy of the community is extended to the family in its sad bereavement.

Entertain Thursday Evening

Fresh Air in Winter

In winter, it is hard to get fresh air in certain rooms. Some rooms in a house are usually colder than others, and if you open the windows it is hard again to heat the room properly. If you keep the windows closed you don't get fresh air; if you keep them open you cannot quickly reheat the room. The

PERFECTION
SMOKELESS
OIL HEATER

Absolutely smokeless and odorless solves the difficulty. You can leave the windows in a room open all day in winter, and when you close them apply a match to a Perfection Oil Heater and heat the room to any temperature you desire in a few minutes.

The Perfection Oil Heater is finished in Japan or nickel. It burns for nine hours. It has a cool handle and a damper top. It has an automatic locking flame spreader, which prevents the wick from being turned high enough to smoke, and is easy to remove and drop back so that the wick can be quickly cleaned. An indicator always shows amount of oil in the font.

The filler-cap does not need to be screwed down. It is put in like a cork in a bottle, and is attached to the font by a chain.

The burner body or gallery cannot become wedged, because of a new device in construction, and consequently, it can always be easily unscrewed in an instant for reworking. The Perfection Oil Heater is strong, durable, well made, built for service, yet light and ornamental.

Dealers Everywhere. If not at yours, write for descriptive circular to the nearest agency of the

CURES BAD STOMACH

No Indigestion, Gas, Sourness, Heartburn or Dyspepsia Five Minutes After Taking Diapepsin

If your meals don't fit comfortably or you feel bloated after eating, and you believe it is the food which fills you; if what little you eat lies like a lump of lead on your stomach; if there is difficulty in breathing after eating, eructations of sour undigested food and acid, heartburn, brash or a belching of gas, you can make up your mind that you need something to stop food fermentation and cure indigestion.

To make every bite of food you eat aid in the nourishment and strength of your body, you must rid your stomach of poisons, excessive acid and stomach gas, which sours your entire meal—interferes with digestion and causes so many sufferers of dyspepsia, sick headache, biliousness, constipation, griping, etc. Your case is no different—you are a stomach sufferer, though you may call it by some other name; your real and only trouble is that which you eat does not digest, but quickly ferments and sours, producing almost any unhealthy condition.

A case of Pape's Diapepsin will cost fifty cents at any pharmacy here and will convince any stomach sufferer five minutes after taking a single dose that fermentation and sour stomach causing the misery of indigestion.

No matter if you call your trouble catarrh of the stomach, nervousness or gastritis, or by any other name—always remember that a certain cure is waiting at any drug store the moment you decide to begin its use.

Pape's Diapepsin will regulate any out-of-order stomach within five minutes, and digest promptly, without any fuss or discomfort, all of any kind of food you eat.

WHICH ONE FOR YOU?

The price of a pound box of just fairly good candy will purchase one of the best novels ever written. The candy, once eaten, is gone. The book remains to give pleasure to many people for many years.

Why not take home a good book every Saturday?

A trifle in cost, but measured by results worth many dollars.
